BE PART OF TAKEOVER DAY 2010

Takeover Day is a national event led by the Children's Commissioner for England, Maggie Atkinson. It offers young people the chance to work with adults and get involved in decision-making.

Last year saw 30,000 young people working with hundreds of organisations, including businesses, schools, police and fire services, newspapers, banks, TV and radio stations, local councils, MPs, hospitals, charities and government departments.

This year we want to raise numbers to 40,000!
