

Colour the bag and cut round the edges. Cut out the section marked A to make handles. Crease along dotted lines, including curves. Crease and glue flap B. Fold bag in half so that flap B sticks to the opposite side. When glue is dry, hold bag widthways, between finger and thumb and squeeze gently to open a little. Fold in one curved section and then the second curved section on top of the first to form the base of the bag.

